The Grand Commander and Deputy Grand Commander, at their pleasure, visit and preside in any subordinate commandery, and give such instruction and direction in the work and ritual as the good of the Order may require, always conforming to the ancient landmarks and this Grand Constitution. The Deputy Grand Commander, in the event of the death, removal, or physical incompetency of his superior, shall act as the Grand Commander.

It is the duty of the Grand Commander, in person or by one of his council, to visit and examine every subordinate commandery under dispensation once in three months, and every chartered commandery annually, and cause a report of the same to be made at the annual conclave of this Grand Commandery: provided, however, that when in the judgment of the Grand Commander the interest of the institution will be promoted thereby, he may designate one of the Grand Lecturers to make such visit and report to him.

It is the duty of the Grand Treasurer to report to the Grand Commander or presiding officer whenever and as often as there shall be a surplus of one hundred dollars in the treasury, not subject to any appropriation already made, and to invest the same by and with the advice of the first two officers.

It is the duty of the Grand Recorder, annually, to communicate to the Grand Recorders of all State Grand Commanderies, and to the Grand Recorder of the Grand Encampment of the United States of America, a list of all the Grand Officers of the Grand Commandery, and all such other matters as the R. Any vacancy occurring in the board shall be filled for the remainder of the term by the Grand Commandery, by election at any regular or special conclave.

It shall be the duty of said board to hold in trust, for the benefit of the Grand Commandery, the property belonging to the said Grand Fund, and to attend to the care and safe and profitable investment thereof. They shall make a detailed report, in writing, of the condition of the said

Grand Fund at each annual conclave. A failure to make such report, unless excused by the Grand Commandery, shall render the members of said board ineligible to election to any office in the Grand Commandery the ensuing year. I.....a member of.....
Commandery aforesaid, hereby recommend said Companion.....
.....for admission to the Orders of Knighthood.

[SIGNED]

SECT. 10. If it shall appear that the applicant has before applied for the Orders in any commandery other than the one to which he now applies, it shall not be competent for the commandery to act upon the application unless it be accompanied by the written consent of such commandery, duly attested, if within our jurisdiction; and if without our jurisdiction, the consent in writing of the Grand Commander of the State in which such commandery shall be situated.

SOJOURNERS.

SECT. 11. It is not regular for a subordinate commandery to confer the Orders of Knighthood upon any sojourner from any State or place in which there is a commandery regularly established, except by consent of the commandery having jurisdiction. Any commandery which violates this regulation shall be subject to Knightly discipline, and be required to pay, on demand, to the commandery having jurisdiction, the amount of fees received.

Any commandery may, however, take cognizance of the conduct of sojourning Knights.

QUESTIONS.

SECT. 12. In every conclave of Knights, all questions, except of the admission of candidates and members, and of matters specially reserved by the by-laws, shall be decided by a majority vote; the presiding officer, if a member, being entitled to one vote, and in case of a tie to the casting vote.

COSTUME.

SECT. 13. The costume of this Grand Commandery and its subordinates is such as is from time to time approved by this Grand Body.

OPENING AND CLOSING.

SECT. 14. All councils and commanderies should be opened and closed in due and ancient form, and commanderies with devotion.

AMENDMENTS.

SECT. 15. This Grand Constitution may be altered or amended by vote of two thirds of the members present at any annual conclave in October.
